

On Wednesday, May 19, 2010 at 2 p.m. in room 2154 of the Rayburn House Office Building the Subcommittee on the Federal Workforce, Postal Service, and the District of Columbia will hold a hearing entitled, “Jobs, Jobs, Jobs: Transforming Federal Hiring”.

The purpose of the hearing is to review recent regulatory changes to hiring, such as shared registers, the upgraded USAJOBS website, and the Veterans’ Employment Initiative, as well as to consider proposed legislative initiatives. Of particular interest is how to balance the federal government’s need as an employer to recruit college and higher-education graduates while also fulfilling its traditional role of hiring veterans as prescribed under current law.

Additionally, the hearing is intended to tackle how federal agencies can be equipped best to hire both high-quality novice and experienced workers in a time-sensitive and applicant-friendly manner.

To watch a webcast of the hearing, click here

The witnesses scheduled to testify are:

PANEL I:

John Berry

Office of Personnel Management

PANEL II:

David Holway

National Association of Government Employees (SEIU/NAGE)

Jacqueline Simon

American Federation of Government Employees, AFL-CIO

Maureen Gilman

National Treasury Employees Union

Tim Embree

Iraq and Afghanistan Veterans of America

Stephen Crosby

John W. McCormack Graduate School of Policy Studies, University of Massachusetts Boston

Tim McManus

Partnership for Public Service

Documents and Links

Prepared statement of Chairman Stephen F. Lynch

Prepared testimony of Hon. John Berry

Prepared testimony of David Holway

Prepared testimony of Jacqueline Simon

Prepared testimony of Maureen Gilman

Prepared testimony of Stephen Crosby

Prepared testimony of Tim McManus